Nolan Painting presented the Main Line Gives Back Award

Nolan Painting, Southeastern Pennsylvania's largest family-owned residential painting company, received the Main Line Gives Back Award from The Main Line Chamber Of Commerce. CEO Kevin Nolan accepted the award at The Chamber's Red Carpet Dinner, held last evening at The Drexelbrook Country Club in Drexel Hill.

The Main Line Gives Back Award honors a company's efforts to enhance the community, through support for nonprofits and other community-focused endeavors. Nolan Painting is a two-time award recipient. The company was also a winner in 2011.

The recognition comes on the heels of last month's introduction of Nolan in the Neighborhood, a community initiative supporting local organizations and events throughout Southeastern Pennsylvania. The company has committed to investing approximately $1,000,000 over the next 10 years to support initiatives that improve the communities the company has served for the past 35-years.

Since its founding in 1979, Nolan Painting has been an active community partner - attending, volunteering and sponsoring road races, concerts, festivals, silent auctions, shows and sporting events throughout the Main Line and surrounding areas. In 2015 alone, the company invested approximately $100,000 and upwards of 1000 employee volunteer hours into a variety of community initiatives. Consumers who would like to learn how Nolan in the Neighborhood can support their community efforts, will find information at www.nolanintheneighborhood.com.
